

YOUTH AMBASSADORS with Canada

The Digital Youth Ambassadors Program with Canada is a virtual leadership exchange program for Canadian youth ages 16-17 and adult educators. The program, sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, provides full scholarships for 15 students and two adult educators from Canada to take part in an eight-week digital program, exploring civic education, digital leadership, and community service through online tools and platforms.

What Participants Gain from the Youth Ambassadors Program

Leadership Skills | Intercultural Understanding | Networking Opportunities
Professional Development | Global Perspectives | Scholarship & Fellowship Opportunities
Community Service

All Youth Participants must:

- Be a Canadian citizen
- Be between 16-17 years old at the start of the exchange with at least four months of high school or CEGEP remaining before graduation
- Demonstrate an interest in, and have limited experience in, the United States
- Demonstrate leadership potential and community involvement
- Be willing to complete a Community-Based Service Initiative in their Canadian community after the exchange

The Youth Ambassadors Program aims to develop a cadre of young adults from across countries in the Americas who have a strong sense of civic responsibility, a commitment to their communities, an awareness of current and global issues, and strong interpersonal leadership skills. The program aims to promote mutual understanding, respect, and collaboration between people in the United States and other countries of the Western Hemisphere.
